PUTS UP $5,000 ON KILRAIN

To Fight Any Man in the World—Sioux City Wins the Only Western Game Played Yesterday—General Sporting.

Fox is Fishing for a Fight.

PARIS, August 13.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—An American entered the Paris office of the New York Herald yesterday, saying: "What is all this I see in your columns about John L. Sullivan being anxious to enter the ring against Jake Kilrain? I am ready to back Kilrain for $10,000, and Sullivan for any one else, and if I have to accept a deposit of $500 or $1,000, just to show I am talking business, I will place the money with the Herald now."

The American laid his card and check on the table. One read: "Mr. Richard K. Fox, the New York Police Gazette."

The other read: "PARIS, August 13. THE PARK NATIONAL BANK, New York. Pay to the order of N. Y. Herald, $5,000. Richard K. Fox."

Mr. Fox charged awhile about fighting and fighters. He said: "I see Sullivan has left the circus business and offers to fight Mitchell or Kilrain, with a preference for my champion, Jake Kilrain. Sullivan says he has friends who will back him. Now, here is my money," said Mr. Fox, "and here is a letter which I ask the Herald to publish," and he handed over this communication:

PARIS, August 13.—Editor Herald: I see by your cable reports from America that John L. Sullivan says he is anxious to meet my champion, Jake Kilrain. I am prepared to back Kilrain against Sullivan or any other man in the world for $1,000 or more. Will the Herald please accept a deposit of $5,000 and hold it until the 30th of September next, to be covered by any one desirous of meeting Kilrain for the heavy weight championship of the world and the Police Gazette diamond belt, the men to fight not sooner than six months from the date of signing the articles. The second deposit to be $5,000 a side and made with the Sporting Life of London, and the third and last deposit of $5,000 to be made with the New York Clipper, which is to be the final stakeholder. There are many good men living, but I think Kilrain is the best. If anyone thinks differently I trust he will embrace the present excellent opportunity to prove it. Yours truly, RICHARD K. FOX.

Mr. Fox was duly given a receipt for his $5,000 check which he left with the Herald. "I have just seen Kilrain," said Mr. Fox. "He is a very excellent second round. I am more pleased with him than ever. He is still in training at Pony Moore's house, where he is staying and where a track has been laid down for his special use. Should a match be arranged, Charley Rowell will train him and Mitchell will second him. Kilrain and Mitchell propose sailing soon for New York, where they will have a hearty reception down the bay, which I am arranging under the direction of my sporting editor, William E. Harding, and Christopher Clarke."

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION.

Sioux City Defeats the Maroons in the Only Game Yesterday.

CHICAGO, August 13.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—With the assistance of Wells, their crack pitcher, Sioux City defeated the Maroons to-day. The home team players continued their excellent second work, but were greatly handicapped by the direction of two new men, Keogan in the box and Scott on first base. Keogan was considered a crack twirler down in Peoria. He has an easy delivery, and unless his wildness was caused by nervousness, he is a very heavy enough for Western association batsmen. Schoenbeck's absence was regretfully noted by the spectators. The score: Chicago, 10; Maroons, 2. Errors—Sioux City 5; Maroons 2. Umpire—Cusick.

Play To-Day at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., August 13.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Minneapolis and Omaha teams arrived in the city from Davenport this morning and will play the remaining games of the series on the Minneapolis grounds. Manager Gooding says his club is a "nowhere" club no longer, but will finish the season in Minneapolis. Of course the team is liable to play games scheduled for Minneapolis at other cities occasionally, as he is in the hole and will go where he thinks there is the most money. Concerning the forfeited game of Saturday at Davenport, it is doubtful if Omaha will be able to make good its claim to it. The captain of the home team is the subject of the dispute, and the grounds for play, and as the games were scheduled for Minneapolis and transferred to Davenport by request of the Minneapolis club, it was virtually the home team's captain that should have decided, Umpire Lucas having no jurisdiction until the game was started.

RIFLED THE MAIL SACKS.

A Through Registered Omaha Pouch Stolen at Valentine.

THE REUNION AT BROKEN BOW.

Extensive Preparations for the Event at Custer County's Capital—Blowers at Nellig—Over the State.

Robbed the Mail.

Valentine, Neb., August 13.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The mail from the east for this place was robbed here last night after the departure of the west-bound train.

The night was intensely dark, and the mail, consisting of three cases and five sacks, was thrown from the train at the extreme end of the platform, where it remained for about ten minutes while Night Operator James Brecht took in the express. When the mail was delivered at the postoffice this morning the letter sack was found out open and the contents were missing.

Postmaster Hollway and Sheriff Little made a careful examination and search and found the pouch and a number of torn registered envelopes, from which the contents had been taken, in the vault of the water-closet in the rear of the depot. The amount stolen is not ascertained, and there is no positive clue as to who committed the robbery. It is thought the robbery was committed while the mail was left upon the platform, by a well-informed party.

The G. A. R.'s at Broken Bow.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., August 13.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The proceedings of the Grand Army reunion for central and western Nebraska will continue to-morrow morning.

The arrangements are complete and perfect in every detail. The fair ground is a veritable city of tents, and laid out in avenues of snow white canvas it presents a beautiful appearance. Over two hundred tents are already up. The Blue Springs battery of heavy artillery arrived on Saturday evening, and at sunrise to-morrow will waken the city with its first salute.

Mr. McConnell said he wished a perfect boom from some one that both the heating and ventilating systems proposed would provide satisfactory results.

Dr. Saville thought there was no use for any such joint bond; if the ventilating company guaranteed their work and the heating company guaranteed theirs, that would be sufficient.

Mr. Wehrer wanted either Welshans, Pratt & Co., or the Omaha Heating and Ventilating Co., to guarantee the work of both systems, for the ventilators might fan all the heated air out of the building.

Dr. Saville thought it was unreasonable to ask one firm to guarantee the work of another. The ventilating would not interfere with the heating of the building, as the air in the building would be circulated.

Mr. Barrett, of the Exhaust company, was allowed to take the floor, and he guaranteed the perfect working of his system without interference with the heating of the building.

Mr. Welshans came forward and guaranteed the perfect working of his heating system, but not in connection with Mr. Barrett's ventilating system.

Dr. Saville still spoke of a hubbub, some of the members insisting that while both the heating and ventilating systems might be perfect of themselves, still in connection with each other they would be a failure through the interference of the ventilator and vice versa.

It was then suggested that the committee should report to the board and modify it, and they then offered the following: The committee on heating and ventilating recommend the acceptance of the bid of the Exhaust Ventilating company for $1,500 to furnish a ventilating apparatus for the Park school building and will guarantee the same to their bid, and that they will not depreciate the work of the steam heating apparatus in the good heating of the building, and that no payment be made until February next, when the same shall be tested.

This awkwardly worded resolution was signed by Messrs. Spalding and Saville, and was satisfactory to the board it was adopted.

The same committee then presented an offer for heating the Park school building, for the sum of $2,500. This, too, was accepted.

The superintendent of buildings was instructed to build a smoke flue in the Park school building of sufficient capacity for the use of the steam heating apparatus.

The superintendent of buildings and the committee on buildings and property were authorized to order such minor changes in the interior arrangements of the Lake school building as the building committee may see fit for the better convenience of teachers and pupils of that school the cost of same not to exceed $25.

Mr. Millard, of the Lake school, said that the cost of same was not to exceed $25.

Bids for fuel were received from the various local dealers, and referred. There was a slight increase over the bid of 1887.

Charley Wehrer moved that the matter of employing an assistant German teacher in the school be referred to the board.

Superintendent Saues was called on to state whether such a teacher was needed in the school. He said it was possible that such a teacher would not be needed. He thought it rather premature to settle this matter at this time.

After some debate it was decided to indefinitely postpone the matter.

ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS

Lake View Park.

John W. Paul, who has heavy real estate interests near Lake View park, has signified his intention of meeting the mayor, aldermen and the park commissioners of this city at an early date, with a view of making extensive improvements at the park. It is understood that Mr. Paul will give to the park commissioners a 100 foot wide strip along the east side of the lake from the picnic grounds south to W. S. Mayne's possessions, who, it is said, will donate a similar strip around to Fifteenth street.

The proposed strip is to be used for a park, and will be in fine condition by the park commissioners, and thus a fine drive will be opened from the city to Lake View park. The body of water in the park is about two miles in length, is well wooded on its banks, and is a source of several acres, and with the picturesque bluffs in the background the lake and the Missouri river is an island containing several acres, which is owned by the city. The plans of improvement are to make this a lakeside boulevard.

Still After the Park.

Papers were served on Mayor Rohrer yesterday, notifying him of a new suit in the United States court by which the parties who have been trying to wrest Fairmount park from the city not only have the park but also the city has been given a large crop of dollars to clear the title in their minds.

A Striking Demonstration.

Colored Workingmen and Brown Breads held a little political controversy last evening on Broadway. The argument was striking, especially as Brown landed his right with crushing force upon the colored's nasal organ. A war was immediately issued for Brown's arrest and the charge of assault with intent to kill placed against him.

Colored Oratory.

Last evening there was a gathering on Pearl street to hear A. A. Whitman, who was announced as "The gifted orator, poet and preacher from Kansas."

Portland, Oregon, and all points in Alaska can be reached over the Oregon Short Line of the Union Pacific.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Important Matters Discussed in the Senate and House.

DEBATE ON THE FISHERY TREATY.

A Motion to Postpone Consideration of the Matter Until Next December Advocated by Senator Gray.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—The resolution offered last week by Mr. Edwards, calling on the attorney general for copies of the correspondence between the department of justice and the supervisor of elections in the city of New York on the subject of registration and election, was taken up in the senate to-day and its purpose was explained by him. After a brief discussion the resolution was adopted.

The senate then resumed consideration of the fisheries treaty in open executive session and was addressed by Mr. Call in support of its ratification.

At the close of Mr. Call's speech the president of the senate announced the question to be on Mr. Morgan's motion to postpone consideration of the treaty until December next, and asked whether the senate was ready for the question.

Mr. Gray called for the yeas and nays on the motion.

Mr. Gray said that before a vote was taken he desired to say something on the motion. He then began a speech in support of postponing consideration of the treaty until December next.

Mr. Gray said that it had become evident from the outpourings on the republican side of the chamber that the treaty was not being discussed in the midst of an excited political campaign, and the democratic senators were not being properly informed.

Mr. Gray said that he was not in favor of the treaty, and he was not in favor of the fisheries treaty in open executive session and was addressed by Mr. Call in support of its ratification.
